

Young Arts Stained Glass Window

The project, funded by BDFAS and organised in conjunction with Bristol City Museum and Art Gallery, involved a group of pupils from Elmfield School for the deaf researching and helping to design a modern stained-glass window to replace one lost when St Stephen's church was bombed.

The
presentation
with the mayor

with thanks to
Marion Brown

