EXCURSIONS

Stoneleigh Abbey: A magnificent historic house set within a beautiful Repton landscape, with Jane Austen connections.

Leicester Walking Tour: A guided walk through Leicester's historic city centre and fascinating heritage, including the remarkable story of finding the remains of Richard III.

Guru Nanak Gurdwara: One of Leicester's prominent Sikh places of worship, showcasing the faith, traditions and strong sense of community within Sikh culture. Here we will enjoy lunch and learn more about Sikh values such as equality, selfless service (seva) and welcoming everyone, regardless of their background.

Leicester Museum & Art Gallery: Fascinating collections covering art, archaeology, natural history and local heritage, including German Expressionism collection and Picasso ceramics.

Richard III Visitor Centre: The story of King Richard III and the remarkable discovery of his remains in Leicester.

Leicester Cathedral: A beautiful historic cathedral and the final resting place of King Richard III.

Loughborough Bellfoundry: The world's largest and Britain's last working bellfoundry, with a fascinating history of traditional bell making.

Middleton Hall: A historic country house surrounded by beautiful grounds and centuries of heritage, with 950 years of architecture, history, art and walled garden.

Please note that several of the excursions involve walking, so a moderate level of fitness is recommended. Comfortable walking shoes are advisable.
